Dear Jeanne:

I received the enclosed brochures from Williamsburg. Do you want me to send them to the members with a letter asking for suggestions for a project and a meeting place for next year? In the notice about the meeting which Anna Johnson sent out some time ago there is a statement that forms for reservations will be sent out later. It seems to me that it would be a better idea to send all of these at the same time. However, I will be glad to send out what I have now.

I think it will be a good idea to send out reservations forms to all non-members. I do not have enough of these brochures to send them to anybody except members, however.

We have fifty paid members and $393.94 in the bank. I will remind Anna again to let me know when she needs money for the arrangements.

Mary says that Miles Price told her that he would be at Duke in November. If he is coming down at the beginning of the month, maybe he would come to Williamsburg if invited. He would certainly make a contribution to our meeting.

Do you want me to write to Miss Finley about the meeting or do you prefer to do the inviting?

Sorry that you weren't at the Harvard meeting, it was most interesting.

Sincerely,

Frances H. Hall
